

10th IMWC Poster Abstracts
Author	Country	Title	Subject	Note
Henderson, Alister	UK	Future Med Workforce - UK	Multi focus research about future UK Workforce	Breakout Research: presenter on Friday
Marcella Nunez Smith	US	Physician experiences with diversity and discrimination in healthcare: results of a national survey
Erin Fraher	US	Retention of U.S. Physicians in Rural Counties, 1991 to 2003	Sex/Race importance	Presenting on Life Course Theory Saturday
Matt Sutton	UK Scotland	Changes in job satisfaction and attitudes to workload following contractual reform.
Christie Newton	CN	UBC Health Clinic, an Inter-professional Teaching Practice, and a Step towards Improved Patient Care and Efficient Health Resource Management	Objectives: To describe the process of clinic development, implementation and evaluation; and outline a new inter-professional service-learning model of care.
Murray, Richard	AU	Maximising our options: the future of medical delegation in Queensland, Australia.		Presenting plenary session Friday morning.
Pashen, Dennis	AU	Supporting the remotely interested – The role of the University Departments of Rural Health in recruiting and retaining a remote Australian health workforce.		Breakout Research: presenter on Friday
Pashen, Dennis	AU	Extending the capacity of an available rural and remote workforce using Paramedics in Australia.

Chang, Barbara	US	Methods of Allocation and Distribution of New Resident Positions to Enhance Graduate Medical Education		Breakout Research: presenter on Friday
Orcutt, Venetia	US	Analysis of the Supply and Demand of Physician Assistants in the United States
Hart, Gary	US	Growth and Change in the Physician Assistant (PA) Workforce in the U.S.: 1967-2001
Hart, Gary	US	Physician Distribution in the United States	updated description of the nation's allopathic and osteopathic physician geographic distribution using Rural-Urban Commuting Areas (RUCAs) and travel time.
Ricketts, Tom	US	A Moveable Profession	A proposal for a panel at the 2007 IMWC
Hooker, Roderick	US	What contributes to retention of physician assistants in rural communities?
Wansel, Shirley	CN	VCH Interprofessional Collaboration Project	enhancements to the practice environment at a rehab centre
Elizabeth Paice	UK	Hospital at Night' – safer care, safer training
Pamela Stagg	AU	Is community based medical education the answer to rural doctor workforce shortages.	the critical factors that have influenced the career pathways of graduating medical students of the internationally recognised Parallel Rural Community Curriculum

Julie A. Gravel	CN	Alternative Funding Plans for Physicians in Canada
Cathi Bradbury	CN	Proposed Population Based Approach for Funding General Practitioner Services Newfoundland and Labrador	criteria to determine general practitioner funding allocations for specific geographic areas within Newfoundland and Labrador
Ruth Ballweg	US	Converting Military Corpsmen to Civilian Physician Assistants:	Drawing upon highly refined medical skills and incorporating them into clinical practice to improve access to care.
Ruth Ballweg	US	Indigenous Alaskan Community Health Workers
Robert Elliott	UK	Distributing public funding to the NHS: taking account of differences in local labour market conditions on NHS recruitment and retention
Robert Elliott	UK	Derivation of geographic pay differentials to equalise the recruitment and retention of General Practitioners
Lynda Buske	CN	Professional Satisfaction Among Canadian Physicians	A Retrospective Look at Survey Results after different incentives are enacted	Breakout Research: presenter on Friday

--	--	--	--

--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--

